

Glade Family Scholarship

The Glade Family has attended Grand Island Public Schools for 6 generations. Arriving in Grand Island in 1883, the Glade family is recognized as one of Grand Island's prominent early settlers. The family owned and operated the Glade Mill a pre-cursor to the present day company Con-Agra. The family was also involved in many other enterprises including Glade Service, Grand Island Finance Company and Axis Capital. The Glade family is proud of their Grand Island heritage and wish to invest in students who understand the value of hard work and service to their community.
