

Irma Louise “Pat” Nichols Memorial Scholarship

Grand Island Concert Association

Born in 1915, Irma Louise Nichols surrounded herself with music and theater through her high school years. At age 16, young Irma played the part of “Pat” in the show The Wild Oats Boy by Lillian Mortimer. Though the show was short-lived, the nickname was not. From then forward she was called Pat. She became an accomplished pianist and church organist, a career that spanned 50 years. Pat enjoyed countless concert and theater performances her entire 102 years of life.

Pat could not go to college because of the Great Depression. It is her family’s wish to help provide an opportunity for young people to fulfill their college dreams. This scholarship is designed to carry on Pat’s musical legacy for students who pursue music as an avocation or career.

The Irma Louise “Pat” Nichols Memorial Scholarship is a part of the Grand Island Concert Association Scholarships. In the spirit of encouraging musical and theatrical talent, the GICA offers scholarships annually to area students who have a plan to continue to grow and use their gifts.
