

Janeth Davis Memorial Fund

Classroom Mini-grant Program

The family of Janeth Davis offers this fund to honor her memory and invest in the students of Grand Island Public Schools. Mrs. Davis was a middle school teacher, teaching both English and Spanish. She loved her students and was a fierce advocate for their education and opportunities.

Eligibility and Purpose

The Janeth Davis Memorial Fund will offer grants annually to benefit students via the GIPS Foundation's Classroom Mini-grant program. The grants will be funded using the standard procedures for Classroom Mini-grants as determined by the GIPS Foundation.

Preference will be given to middle school projects for these designated funds, but other projects may also be funded.

Amount

The cap for funds distributed for 2022-2023 will not exceed $1,500

To Apply

Complete the Classroom Mini-grant online application form at <https://gipsfoundation.org/what-we-do/classroom-grants.html>

Deadline

Classroom Mini-grant applications are accepted in two rounds on an annual basis. See application deadlines at <https://gipsfoundation.org/what-we-do/classroom-grants.html>

Selection Committee

A committee approved by the Foundation Board will select the recipients from the requests submitted.

Administration

1. The Grand Island Public Schools Foundation Board of Directors will administer the fund per the Foundation policies and guidelines.
2. The fund will be classified as a spendable fund.
3. Funding decisions will be approved by the Foundation Board of Directors.
4. When program and individual grants are made, checks will be made payable to institutions, organizations, clinicians, tutors, etc. on behalf of benefitting Grand Island Public Schools students.

